

TRUE WORSHIP

As a true worshipper, what is one thing that you can do in your home as an act of worship?

As a true worshipper, what is one thing you can do in your country as an act of worship to God? Think about those who are in need. Is there anything you can do to help them?

Write down one area in your life which you need to surrender to God? What is hindering you from doing so?